To Whom it May Concern,

Jesse Hart is an employee with the Y and has held a position at Fox Hollow Charlemagne since September, 2011. His position is working with k-5th grade students, providing quality after school child care.

As Jesse's immediate supervisor, I believe a career with children is a fantastic choice for him. In my observations Jesse works from the heart. He is a very kind and compassionate individual. He truly cares about each and every child in our program. He takes the time to learn each child's individual needs and quirks, and strives to meet them on a daily basis. Jesse goes the extra mile and takes suggested trainings as well as reads suggested child behavior material. He is a reliable dependable employee. He is always on time and is always prepared for an afternoon with children. He realizes the importance of consistency where the child is concerned and is never absent from their day.

I hope that Jesse succeeds in becoming a child therapist. He would be a great asset to the child community.

Sincerely,
